Thursday, October 3, 2019
Abbey Inn

Welcome:

- President Lesa Sandberg called the meeting to order at 11:45 a.m.
- The prayer was offered by Sharon Simmons
- Carol Bracken did an Americanism presentation and led us in the pledge
- Dignitaries present were Gil Almquist county commissioner, Bette Ariel city council member, Rep. Lowry Snow, Senator Don Ipson and Jimi Kestin Republican party president

Business:

- Lesa talked about the newsletter and about the good news section
- Pam Palmero is moving and her position is up for grabs for UFRW. We were urged to consider taking her place.
- Lesa talked about the awards received at the convention in Philadelphia and how WCRW received the award for Outstanding Membership Recruitment
- Since the dues are increasing on the national level it was proposed that local dues are increased by $10. From now to Dec. 31 dues will remain the same and the increase will take place Jan. 1
- The membership report was given by Kimberly Hancock and Christa Hinton.

Guest Speaker:

Judy Houston introduced Sam Parker who gave a wonderful presentation on the Convention of States.

The meeting adjourned at 1:00 p.m.

The meeting was recorded live on Washington County Republican Women's Facebook page.

Respectfully submitted by WCRW Secretary Sandy Atkin
